

2009 Silent Auction

North Carolina Tomato Growers Association “Winter Vegetable Conference and Trade Show” February 18th & 19th, 2009

Each year the NC Tomato Grower’s Association holds a “Silent Auction” during their annual meeting at the Winter Vegetable Conference. All the proceeds of the “Silent Auction” go to the Scholarship Endowment Fund. Each year scholarships are awarded to one or more deserving college students who are pursuing an agricultural related degree.

In the past, friends of the N.C. Tomato Growers Association have been extremely generous in supporting the “Silent Auction” for the benefit of this scholarship and we hope this support will continue. We encourage you to be creative for this auction. Donations do not have to be agricultural in nature!
